

SUMMER SCHOOL ON EU POLICY MAKING

ANALYSING HUMAN SECURITY IN TODAY'S EU

5 ECTS

MONDAY 1 – FRIDAY 12 JULY 2019 (16TH EDITION)

The programme in a nutshell:

- Intensive 5 ECTS programme
- Inter-university summer school: week 1 in Brussels, week 2 in Vienna
- Learn how EU institutions work, both in theory and in practice
- Perfect for students and professionals
- Includes in-depth study visits to prime international institutions
- Organised by a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence on the doorstep of the main EU institutions

What you will get out of it:

- Broadened expertise on the functioning of the EU, its intricate decision-making process and the roles of various actors involved
- Insider knowledge on the 2019 focus area: human security in the EU
- Close connections with other students and professors, a network that will help boost your career
- A diverse and multicultural group of friends

'The summer school was the perfect combination of studying, travelling, and having the opportunity to learn from the best. It was not simply about being a student, it was about the people you meet, the atmosphere that you create together and the opportunity to be part of that beautiful team. We came from different cultures, backgrounds, we had different ideas, beliefs, but we had a common desire: to make those 2 weeks the best time of our lives.'

- Christiana Iucu, 2018 student

WEEK 1 IN BRUSSELS, WEEK 2 IN VIENNA

Explore two prime European cities and enjoy exciting study visits to prime international institutions: the European Commission, European Parliament, Council of the EU, OSCE and the UN!

Who can apply?

It is recommended to be in the final year of a Bachelor of preferably (but not limited to) a degree in Social, Economic or Political Sciences, Business, Law, or History. Candidates not meeting this requirement but demonstrating a high level of motivation and interest are also welcome to apply.

A good level of English is necessary.

What does it cost?

For updated tuition fees and study costs please check our website www.eu-summerschool.eu.

The Programme offers a limited number of scholarships, that take the form of partial tuition waivers. These waivers are awarded on the basis of a separate request, submitted as a part of your application. They are awarded upon an assessment of merit and demonstrable need.

What can you study?

WEEK 1

You review the main EU institutions, decision-making procedures and key policy areas, while theoretically exploring questions of governance, participation and legitimacy.

WEEK 2

You acquire in-depth knowledge on EU policy making in a number of fields (constitutional and legal issues, foreign and security policy, human rights protection) and also focus on EU foreign relations.

OPTIONAL: COMBINE WITH ONLINE LEARNING PROGRAMME

The Postgraduate Certificate in EU Policy Making (25 ECTS) is a 1- or 2-year blended learning programme that combines this summer school with 5 online EU Modules accessible 24/7.

- Either you kick off in September (with the EU Modules), or in July (with the Summer School)
